

Writing Spirit Drawing Soul

A Multimedia Experience

- Are you searching for creative inspiration?
- Would you like to move yourself out of being stuck in your life or business?
- Are you seeking a place to bounce your ideas around with like-minded souls?

We have found that becoming absorbed in the creative process has freed our minds to come up with solutions to challenges in our lives and business and now we would like to share our way of working with you.

We believe that everyone is creative. We can all make things that are beautiful and meaningful. When you find your creative soul your spirit will soar and you will discover a lifelong way of finding happiness within yourself.

Join us on this metaphorical journey where we will

- guide you through 6 creative multimedia modules that will inspire you on your way to your goals
- help you to create a journal in which you can record your journey and beyond
- send you the details of how to join a blog where you can showcase your work with others on the journey

Our Team:

Lorraine, Pat and the team at Passion@Work are committed to being an organically growing, inclusive, learning community. We excel at working collaboratively with individuals and organisations discovering passions and achieving goals through new and creative ways of learning.

The Journey

The creative challenges you will encounter on this journey will be broad and open to your interpretation. There is no right or wrong, you are free to make your own map.

The modules are

1. Colour Your World
2. Words are the Key
3. Patterns in the Path
4. Directing the Route
5. Travel to the Edge
6. Journey beyond the Map

For more details please email us or buy online at www.passionatwork.co.uk

Special prices until Jan 2010

- E-programme and blog support for 6 months £95 plus VAT
- 1 day workshop including lunch and refreshments £120 plus VAT
- Package (includes e-programme, 6 months blog support and 1 day workshop) £195 plus VAT